Room to Talk

Are you feeling isolated in your current job? Are you interested in developing new skills? This position is ideal for a therapist who wants to be part of a growing community of like-minded clinicians.

Room to Talk is a program of The Women’s Center of Southeastern Michigan, a nonprofit human services agency. In addition to counseling, The Women's Center offers programs for mothers and their infants, divorce education and support, career and financial coaching, an award-winning counseling internship program, and resource and referrals covering a seven-county area.

Our goal is to create a supportive community, not just for our clients, but also for each other. In addition to women, we welcome men and gender-diverse colleagues and clients.

Therapist Job Description

30 hours a week, flexible hours

- Maintain a caseload averaging 20-30 therapy hours each week ($65-$85/yr)
- Complete brief clinical and billing documentation
- Engage in crisis management, suicide prevention, safety planning, and resource navigation with clients online and in person.
- Uphold values of transparency, inclusion, and egalitarianism

Benefits to you:

- Professional development: weekly consultation group for fully-licensed clinicians and the opportunity to participate in our internship professional development
- The opportunity to create a social justice-oriented therapy practice, with special attention to gender, race, class, and LGBTQI+ issues
- Growth that is possible in a community of practice, where we offer each other support and encouragement to try new things

Required qualifications:

- Fully-licensed master’s degree in social work or counseling (LMSW or LPC) in Michigan
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills
- An interest in working with diverse identities, including intersecting identities of race, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, sexual orientation, and gender identity
- Ability to form effective partnerships with clients, staff, and interns
- A strong commitment to collaboration and cross-training
- Creativity and a desire to grow

Desired qualifications:

- Ability to fluently speak a language other than English
- We strongly encourage the following groups to apply: people of color, individuals who have experienced poverty or economic hardship, people who identify as TBLGQ+

We have a preference for “shared leadership” and a participative decision-making style. New personalities and fresh ideas ensure mutual growth and keep the work relevant and rewarding.

If interested, please send a resume and cover letter that answers the questions below to info@roomtotalk.org

- What does empathy mean to you?
- How does social justice play a role in your work?
- As a therapist working within a larger practice, what would the ideal collaborative environment look like for you?