NATIONAL STANDARD BRED HORSE SHOW RULES AND REGULATIONS:

- Horses will be judged under SPHO national rules.
- ALL horses entered must be full-Standardbreds registered with the USTA. Must show proof of registration by lip tattoo, freeze brand and/or registration papers before entering the first class. Tattoos WILL be checked by a DQP.
- ALL STALLS MUST BE PRE-REGISTERED. Horse stalls are available at $100 for the weekend. Tack stalls are available at $75 for the weekend. No bedding included. Please only use shavings. No straw or other bedding is permitted. No stabling at the Horse Park before Wednesday at 6:00pm. Stalls need to be vacated from the show grounds by noon on Monday. Please note that no bedding will be available at the show.
- ALL ENTRIES MUST BE PRE-REGISTERED BY OCTOBER 14, 2022
- Pre-entries must be accompanied by an open check mailed by October 14, 2022.
- Schooling in designated areas only.
- Camper hookups are available near the stable area at a fee of $150 for the weekend.
- Proof of negative Coggins test dated within 12 months for out-of-state horses and 24 months for in-state horses. Horses coming from out of state must have a health certificate dated within 30 days of the show.
- No refunds will be granted without a vet's certificate (stall, EMT and office fees will not be refunded).
- Approved helmets required for exhibitors 18 years and under when riding or driving. Speed and fun classes recommend helmets for ALL exhibitors. Failure to follow this rule will result in being excused from the ring.
- Dogs will not be permitted on the premises unless restrained by a leash. $50.00 fine will be imposed for loose dogs.
- Only standard cavessons are permitted in all pleasure, hunter, and equitation classes.
- No martingales or tie-downs permitted in under saddle and equitation classes. Games excluded.
- Ear bonnets permitted in puddle jumper, jumper, and speed divisions only.
- Disrespect to a judge or show official will not be tolerated, and will disqualify the exhibitor, resulting in forfeiture of all entry fees.
- No one may approach the judge during the competition unless accompanied by the Show Manager.
- All horses must be serviceably sound. Racing blemishes not to count. Show judge's decision will be final. If excused, remaining entry fees will be refunded.
- Exhibitors are notified that the Horse Park of NJ only allows drugs and medications to be administered by a show vet.
- Holds on classes must be requested in the office before the start of the session where the conflict occurs. Only exhibitors with back-to-back classes will be granted holds.
- Exhibitors are responsible for having their entries at ringside when their class is called. A "two-minute rule" will be in effect on the gate.
- Any rules that are not covered in the SPHO rule book will defer to the guidelines of the organization covering that discipline such as: English/Dressage – USDF/USEF, Western – AQHA, Driving - ECTRA
- In the case of a tie for Champion, the classes used to break the tie will be marked in the Division descriptions with an exclamation point (!).
- Exhibitors must declare their horses as either Rookie, Green, Novice, or Senior on the entry form. Improperly classifying your horse will result in disqualification with no refund of entry fees and will also change the horse's eligibility status.
- All returned checks will be subject to a $35 surcharge.
- Neither the Standardbred Pleasure Horse Organization of NJ, Inc. nor the Horse Park of NJ will be responsible for any accident of any kind or nature that may occur to any person, animal or property, and the exhibitor shall hold the Committee or Property Owner harmless and indemnify them against any legal proceeding arising from such accident.
- The Show Committee and/or the Horse Park of NJ reserve the right to amend, add or clarify any rules that are found to be unsafe, unclear or potentially misconstrued.
- Any class descriptions that are not answered on this prize list will refer to the SPHO-NJ Rulebook, USEF, USDF, or AQHA guidelines.
- All judge's results are official.

Training Level Dressage

Training Level Dressage is used to test the suppleness of the horse's muscles and their willingness. The training level is comprised of 3 tests, which confirm that the horse is supple and moves freely forward in a clear and steady rhythm, accepting contact with the bit. These tests include walk, trot and canter work. The same horse and rider combination may not cross enter between levels.

First Level Dressage

First Level Dressage continues to develop the horse's suppleness by adding lengthening of stride, 15m circles, single loops and leg yielding. First Level is comprised of 3 tests. These tests include walk, trot and canter work. They also contain leg yielding, single loops, lead changes through trot and smaller circles demonstrate the horse's balance and responsiveness. The same horse and rider combination may not cross enter between levels.

Western Intro Level Dressage

Tests provide an introduction to the discipline of Western Dressage; the horse performs only at the walk and jog. The rider should demonstrate correct basic position, use of basic aids, and understanding of the figures. The horse should show relaxation; and harmony between horse and rider is important. The horse accepts the aids and influence of the rider. The jog should be a natural gait within the horse's scope and should demonstrate a swinging back. All jog work may be ridden sitting or rising. Open to all horse and riders
