Article X
Prohibition Against Sharing in Corporate Earnings

No Director, officer, employee, or a member of a Committee of, or person connected with, the Corporation, or any other private individual shall receive at any time any net earnings or pecuniary profit from operations of the Corporation, provided that this shall not prevent the payment to any such person of such reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for the Corporation in effecting any of its purposes as shall be fixed by the Board; and no such person or persons shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any assets of the Corporation upon the dissolution of the Corporation. All members of the Board shall be deemed to have expressly consented and agreed that upon such dissolution or winding up of the affairs of the Corporation, whether voluntary or involuntary, the assets of the Corporation, after all debts have been satisfied, then remaining in the hands of the Board shall be distributed, transferred, conveyed, delivered, and paid over, in such amounts as the Board may determine or as may be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction upon application of the Board, exclusively to charitable, religious, scientific, testing for public safety, literary or education organizations which would then qualify under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its Regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, provided that the Board shall endeavor to distribute, transfer, convey, deliver, or pay over said assets to an organization the purpose of which is to help women (and their families) experiencing perinatal mood and anxiety disorders (depression and/or anxiety during pregnancy or the first year postpartum).

2. Nothing in these Bylaws shall be construed to limit a Director from adopting or expressing, on the Director’s own behalf, and without consultation with the Corporation or the Board, any views, opinions, or beliefs that may differ from those of the Corporation, so long as the Director clearly identifies that such views are not expressed on behalf of the Corporation.

3. Any Board Member who fails to comply with Sections 1 and 2 of this Article is subject to removal.
Article XII
Amendments

These Bylaws may be amended at any regular meeting or at any special meeting called for that purpose by a two thirds (2/3) vote of the Directors. The Chair, or an assignee, shall keep records of amendments adopted to these Bylaws, referenced by date of adoption.
