

The Chapel Without Walls

The OLD Philosopher Dr. John M. Miller presents a Series of Lectures for People Who Prefer Pondering to Pandering

In Support of The Chapel Without Walls Community Outreach Fund
Admission: $10 per lecture or $25 for all four lectures
Payable by Check at the Door

To be Held At
The Cypress Hall at the Cypress – Hilton Head Plantation
Thursdays, January 3, 10, 17, 24, 2013
1:30 to 3:30 – Lecture & Discussion

For Entry to HHP – just say “Lecture at the Cypress”

January 3 American Demographics: Who Are We, What Are We Becoming, What Shall We Be?

Surprising trends in the rising number of singles, never-marrieds, senior citizens, ethnic backgrounds, religious affiliation, where people are moving, and why

January 10 How Great a Threat Is Islamic Terrorism?

Is Islam a religion of armed jihad? How do most non-Muslims perceive Islamic terrorists? How do most Muslims perceive Islamic terrorists? What do the terrorists seek? How likely is a nuclear attack?

January 17 The American Obsession with Sports

Revenues and salaries; Tax expenditures to for-profit sports teams; Professional, college, and high school sports as cultural phenomena; The downside of contact sports; The rapidly increasing cost of sports

January 24 The Continuing Controversy Over Climate Change

Is climate change real? If so, who is primarily responsible? What are the likely results? What can be done to slow climate change? Is the Green Revolution succeeding? How long do we have to reverse course?

For Further Information, Contact Dr. John Miller – 843-682-2323 (843-290-0500 cell)
www.chapelwithoutwalls.org > outreach