

COUNTY OF HAWAI'I

STATE OF HAWAI'I

BILL NO. _____

ORDINANCE NO. _____

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING CHAPTER 6 OF THE HAWAI'I COUNTY CODE 1983 (2016 EDITION, AS AMENDED), RELATING TO TRANSIENT ACCOMMODATIONS.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE COUNCIL OF THE COUNTY OF HAWAI'I:

SECTION 1. Chapter 6 of the Hawai'i County Code 1983 (2016 Edition, as amended) is amended by adding an article to be appropriately inserted and to read as follows:

“Article 6. Transient Vacation Rentals.

Division 1. General Provisions.

Section 6-40. Definitions.

When used in this article:

“Booking services” means an intermediary service that, as between the owner, host, or proprietor of a TVR and a prospective occupant, transient, or user thereof, facilitates any of the following:

- (1) The offering, listing, or advertising of a TVR to rent; or
- (2) The making, holding, or arranging of reservations for a TVR; and
- (3) Payment for use of a TVR, whether whole or partial and whether made to the owner, host, or proprietor or to the hosting platform.

“Host” means a reachable person whose principal home is on the same property as a TVR and who resides there while the TVR is rented.

“Hosted” refers to a TVR located on a property that is the principal home of a host.

“Hosting platform” means a person or business that provides booking services.

“Principal home” means the same as described by section 19-71(e) of this Code.

“Reachable” means being able to:

- (1) Respond via telephone to a request or message from a guest, neighbor, or County agency within one hour of receiving that request or message; and
- (2) Be physically present at a TVR within three hours of receiving a request to do so from a guest, neighbor, or County agency.

“TVR” or “transient vacation rental” means a dwelling, dwelling unit, room, apartment, suite, shelter, or the like:

- (1) That is, or is offered to be, furnished and rented to a transient:
 - (A) For a rental period less than one hundred and eighty consecutive days; and
 - (B) In exchange for money, goods, services, or other consideration; and
- (2) Excluding hotels, motels, inns, apartment hotels, boarding facilities, lodges, timeshares, and tents.

“Un-hosted” refers to a TVR located on a property on which a host does not reside while the TVR is rented.

Section 6-41. Administrative enforcement.

- (a) Fines assessed under this section are due and payable in the manner and before the date specified in the order assessing such fines.
- (b) In the case of a hosted TVR, the owner and the host of a TVR are jointly and severally liable for all fines and penalties assessed under this article.
- (c) Decisions made by the director of planning pursuant to this article are appealable as under chapter 25, article 2, division 2, of this Code.
- (d) In all respects not otherwise provided for, any notice or order issued under this article, and the provisions therein, is subject to and must be made in accordance with section 25-2-35.
- (e) The county may institute a civil action in any court of competent jurisdiction for the enforcement of any order issued pursuant to this article. Where the civil action has been instituted to enforce the civil fine imposed by said order, the director need only show that the notice was served, that a civil fine was imposed, the amount of the civil fine imposed, and that the fine imposed has not been paid.
- (f) On the first day of each September, the county shall file with the bureau of conveyances liens on all properties subject to fines levied under this article that remain unpaid for one year or more after final adjudication and the expiration of the time for any further appeal. Upon such filing, the fines shall constitute a lien on the subject property that, for the purposes of authority, shall be considered equivalent to liens arising pursuant to chapter 19 of this Code.

Section 6-42. Rulemaking authority.

The finance and director of plannings may adopt rules pursuant to the Hawai‘i Revised Statutes, chapter 91, necessary for the purposes of this article.

Division 2. Registration.

Section 6-43. Applicability.

This article does not apply to any accommodation, lease, letting, or rental activity:

- (1) Exempt from the Hawai‘i Revised Statutes, chapter 237D;
- (2) Furnished to a health care worker temporarily employed at a medical facility in the County; or
- (3) Authorized or regulated by:
 - (A) Section 25-4-7 of this Code;
 - (B) A special permit under the Hawai‘i Revised Statutes, section 205-6; or
 - (C) A declaration of a state of emergency.

Section 6-44. Short-term vacation rentals deemed registered.

Notwithstanding any provision to the contrary, a short-term vacation rental registered under section 25-4-16 of this Code prior to the effective date of this ordinance, is deemed and shall be considered separately registered for the purposes of this article, subject to renewal under section 6-47, cancellation, and all other provisions of this article as if made in accordance with section 6-45.

Section 6-45. Registration.

- (a) A person may not operate a TVR on any property, unless and until the owner first registers it with the director of finance in a format prescribed by the director of finance that includes:
 - (1) The street address and tax map key of the property;
 - (2) The name, phone number, and email of the owner and the host or other reachable person;
 - (3) The number of bedrooms available to rent, and whether they are rented individually or as a whole;
 - (4) A site drawing showing the location of all structures on the property, including the TVR;
 - (5) A declaration attesting that the TVR complies with the health and safety requirements as may be required by the county;
 - (6) A certificate of tax clearance or other documentation from the department of finance showing that the owner does not owe the County any delinquent real property or transient accommodations tax, including any penalties or interest;
 - (7) A copy of the owner's:
 - (A) General excise tax license obtained under the Hawai'i Revised Statutes, section 237-9; and
 - (B) Certificate of registration under the Hawai'i Revised Statutes, section 237D-4 or 237D-4.5;
 - (8) A signed statement acknowledging that the TVR may affect the real property tax liability of the owner;
 - (9) Other information or material as may be required by the director of finance; and
 - (10) A registration fee of $250 or $500, in the case of a hosted or un-hosted TVR, respectively.
- (b) Upon determination that registration is complete, the director of finance shall issue the owner a registration number for the TVR.
- (c) It is the duty of the owner to maintain the currency and accuracy of information provided in connection with a registered TVR and to accordingly update the director of finance whenever any such information becomes outdated or inaccurate or when the owner elects to terminate the registration.
- (d) Registration expires ninety days after a change in ownership of the property occurs, and any TVR not theretofore registered by the new owner shall be unregistered.

Section 6-46. Failure to register.

- (a) Upon determining that an unregistered TVR is operating on a property, the director of planning shall issue a notice of violation and order ordering the owner to:
 - (1) Cease and desist from operating the TVR until the owner registers the TVR;
 - (2) Pay a civil fine of $10,000; and
 - (3) When deemed necessary by the director of planning, pay a civil fine per day for each day in which the violation persists in an amount specified in the order not to exceed two times the highest daily rate within the previous twelve month period at which the TVR has been advertised.

- (b) Determination of a failure to register may be made on the basis of:
 - (1) An active rental advertisement of the property;
 - (2) The fact that the property may be booked or reserved;
 - (3) Transient accommodations tax returns;
 - (4) Other prima facie evidence of TVR operation.

Section 6-47. Annual renewal.

- (a) No later than one year after the issuance of a TVR registration number or other date as may be prescribed by the director of finance; and every year thereafter, an owner shall renew the registration in a format prescribed by the director of finance including and renewal fee of $100 or $250, in the case of a hosted or un-hosted TVR, respectively.
- (b) If an owner fails to renew a TVR registration within the time prescribed by subsection (a), the director of finance shall issue a notice of expired registration advising the owner that, unless the registration is renewed and payment of the renewal fee including a late fee of $90 within ninety days of the date of the notice, operation of the TVR thereafter will constitute a failure to register subject to section 6-44.

Section 6-48. Cancellation.

- (a) Upon verification of any basis specified in subsection (b), the director of planning shall cancel the registration and issue to the owner a notice of cancellation:
 - (1) Ordering the owner to cease and desist from operating the TVR until the owner re-registers the TVR;
 - (2) Informing the owner of the basis of the cancellation; and
 - (3) Advising the owner that operation of the TVR after the date specified in the notice constitutes a failure to register subject to section 6-46.
- (b) The decision to cancel a registration may be made on the basis of:
 - (1) The TVR, including the structure used therefor or any activity on the property in connection therewith, being in violation of any applicable law;
 - (2) Any information provided by the owner in connection with the registration found to be inaccurate or fraudulent; or
 - (3) Any delinquent County property or transient accommodation tax, or any fees, fines, or penalties assessed on the TVR owed and unpaid by the owner.

Section 6-49. Rights and responsibilities unaffected.

Registration and the issuance of a registration number does not grant any right, privilege, immunity, or other allowance to the subject property or owner except as herein provided, and further does not dispense with any necessity, obligation, or duty under other applicable law to which the owner may be subject.

Division 3. Hosting Platforms.

Section 6-50. Applicability.

This division does not apply to:

- (1) The provision of booking services for a TVR by the owner thereof; and
- (2) A real estate broker or real estate salesperson acting as a hosting platform for no more than one TVR.

Section 6-51. Registration required.

- (a) A hosting platform may not provide or facilitate booking services or ancillary services for a TVR within the County; unless:
 - (1) The person or business first registers with the director of finance, which registration must be made in a format prescribed by the director of finance and include:
 - (A) A registration fee of $1,000;
 - (B) A signed acknowledgement of the registrant's responsibility and obligations under this division; and
 - (C) Other information, documentation, or content as the director of finance may require;
 - (2) The TVR is registered under division 1 or exempt from registration by reason of a use permit or special use permit; and
 - (3) The owner of the TVR consents to the disclosure of information relating to the TVR that the hosting platform is required to report under section 6-53.
- (b) Registration under this section shall remain in effect until terminated by the registrant or cancelled by the director of finance pursuant to section 6-54.
- (c) For the purposes of this section, "ancillary services" includes insurance, concierge services, catering, restaurant bookings, tours, guide services, entertainment, cleaning, property management, or maintenance services in connection with a TVR.

Section 6-52. Reporting.

- (a) For every TVR in the County for which a hosting platform provides booking services during each month, the hosting platform shall report to the director of finance, in the format prescribed by the director of finance, the following information:
 - (1) The tax map key number of the TVR;
 - (2) The registration identification number issued under the Hawai'i Revised Statutes, chapter 237D, associated with the TVR;
 - (3) The TVR registration number issued under division 1; and
 - (3) Other information as the director may require.
- (b) The report must be made no later than fourteen days after the end of each month.
- (c) Notwithstanding subsection (b), a real estate broker or real estate salesperson acting as a hosting platform for more than one TVR may make the report on an annual basis no later than the last day of each January with the information required under subsection (a) covering the preceding calendar year.
- (d) The director may disclose the information in the report to any governmental office or department for the purpose of ensuring compliance with applicable State or County law.

Section 6-53. Violation; penalties.

Upon determination that a hosting platform is in violation of this division, the director shall cancel the registration and issue a notice of violation and order ordering the hosting platform:

- (1) To cease and desist from providing booking services to any TVR in the County no later than ninety days from the date of the notice, or a later date as the director may determine; and
- (2) To pay:
 - (A) A civil fine per day for each day in which the violation persists in the amount specified in the order, provided the amount is not less than $1,000 and not more than $10,000; or
 - (B) In the case of a violation of section 6-52(c), a civil fine of $250.

SECTION 2. Severability. If any provision of this ordinance, or the application thereof to any taxpayer or circumstance, is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of the ordinance which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this ordinance are severable.

SECTION 3. This ordinance shall take effect ninety days after its approval.
