Car Chat Podcast with Amy and Jamy

What a great year of conversations about real women who we can learn a lot from! When we began this podcast, it was just a try-and-see experiment. Would we enjoy it? would we have anything to talk about? would it connect with you? would we want to keep going? So we just picked some of our favorite women and skipped others which lead us to an out of order podcast flow.

Now that many of you are using this content in group bible studies, we thought it was helpful to share a list of the women in Biblical order so that you can lead your ladies through it. From this point forward, we will talk about the women in order that they appear in the Bible to make it simpler on both you and on us.

We are so grateful for God's word and the sweet fellowship we can have around it.

Who is she? She is a lot like me. Who God is to her he is to me!
