Roberta Reardon
Commissioner
New York State
Department of Labor
Robert Reardon, Commissioner, New York State Department of Labor

New York State Department of Labor Commissioner Roberta Reardon was appointed in October 2015 to oversee the Department’s more than 3,300 employees. On June 15, 2016, Commissioner Reardon was unanimously confirmed by the New York State Senate.

Previously, Commissioner Reardon served as President of the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists (AFTRA) from 2007-2012. She was the founding Co-President of SAG-AFTRA, a 165,000-member union for the entertainment industry, when the Screen Actors Guild (SAG) merged with AFTRA in 2012. After stepping down from that position in late 2013, Commissioner Reardon consulted for the AFL-CIO as Special Liaison for Common Sense Economics. She also taught in the Cornell/CUNY Labor Relations Certificate program.
Daniel Mulligan, Business Manager, Enterprise Association, Steamfitters Local 638

Dan has been a proud member of the Enterprise Association of Steamfitters – Local 638 for 37 years. Dan currently serves as Local 638’s Business Manager. In that role, Dan leads and manages the daily affairs of Local 638, representing over 9,000 members working in the five boroughs of New York City and Long Island. Prior to his current role, Dan served Local 638 as an elected Business Agent for 9 years covering East Brooklyn, South Queens, downtown Manhattan and Staten Island.

Dan also spent several years pursuing his education and working outside of the construction industry. He received his bachelor’s degree in Finance in 1995 from St. John’s University and his law degree from Fordham University School of Law in 1999. Dan practiced corporate law in New York and New Jersey for several years before returning to Local 638. He also worked at Brown Brothers Harriman & Co. as an auditor while completing his undergraduate degree and obtaining his law degree.

Dan lives in Chatham, NJ with his wife Sally and his two daughters, Grace and Eleanor.
Christopher Asaro, President, Holt Construction

As Holt’s President, Christopher Asaro sets the daily direction for the firm’s team of over 300 professionals. Asaro and his leadership team have consistently increased the firm’s revenue since 2001, strategically opening offices in key geographic areas throughout the nation. Considered a national aviation construction leader, Asaro has fostered key relationships throughout the country with carriers, concessionaires, and the AEC community. Asaro has instituted a culture at Holt that focuses on client service and satisfaction while also maintaining a family atmosphere at the 103-year-old firm. Asaro has been recognized by several organizations, including the Subcontractor Trade Association of New York and the Women Builders Council for his commitment to elevating and advancing the AEC industry.
