Milestones

Orange County resident Melissa Lupercio is one of five Coors Light Líderes winners, receiving a $10,000 grant to support Building Skills Partnership. The Líderes program honors exceptional Latino leaders who have shown “dedication to making a positive and lasting impact in their communities.”

“This recognition will help us expand our parent engagement and college access program for first-generation students which includes college trips and assistance with college applications,” said Lupercio, development and grants coordinator, BSP.
