APPLE ROWIN'

F • L • H

Øvrevann Aquavit, apple cider
reduction, pecan orgeat, lime acid,
aquafaba, rosemary

*Aquavit ... wow, I love it!
I also make my own fresh granny smith apple juice and I was inspired to create a cozy fall cocktail combining
those flavors.*

— Nellie

*Original drink name was Idun's Apple

MOONLIGHT BREEZE

WALKER

MOONLIGHT BREEZE

C • F • H

Spruce Gin, Herbal Liqueur, simple syrup, lemon & grapefruit juices, aquafaba, black food gel, rose water, rose petal

This cocktail came to me in a dream (really). I had a vision of how it would look and of the contradicting taste. Appearances can be deceiving, can't they?
— Heather

SWISH SWISH, FISH

SF • SV • SL

Herring-washed Øvrevann Aquavit, dry vermouth, sea grape tincture, pickled beet juice, pickled fish & beet garnish

I love aquavit. I love my Scandinavian grandparents. And as everyone obviously knows, if there's one thing Scandinavians just LOVE, it's pickled herring. So ...
— Terry

PEPPED FOR CAMP THYME

C • F • S

Bell pepper-infused Juniper Gin and Aperitivo Classico, pepper-thyme syrup,
orange liqueur, lime acid, hot sauce

*Traynor is a big fan of infusions and “herby” drinks, so we really wanted to create a savory-herbal cocktail that evokes both the warmth and
the freshness of harvest season.*

— Courtney & Traynor

*Original drink name was Peter Piper

LOVE CHAI'LD

SF • S • R

14

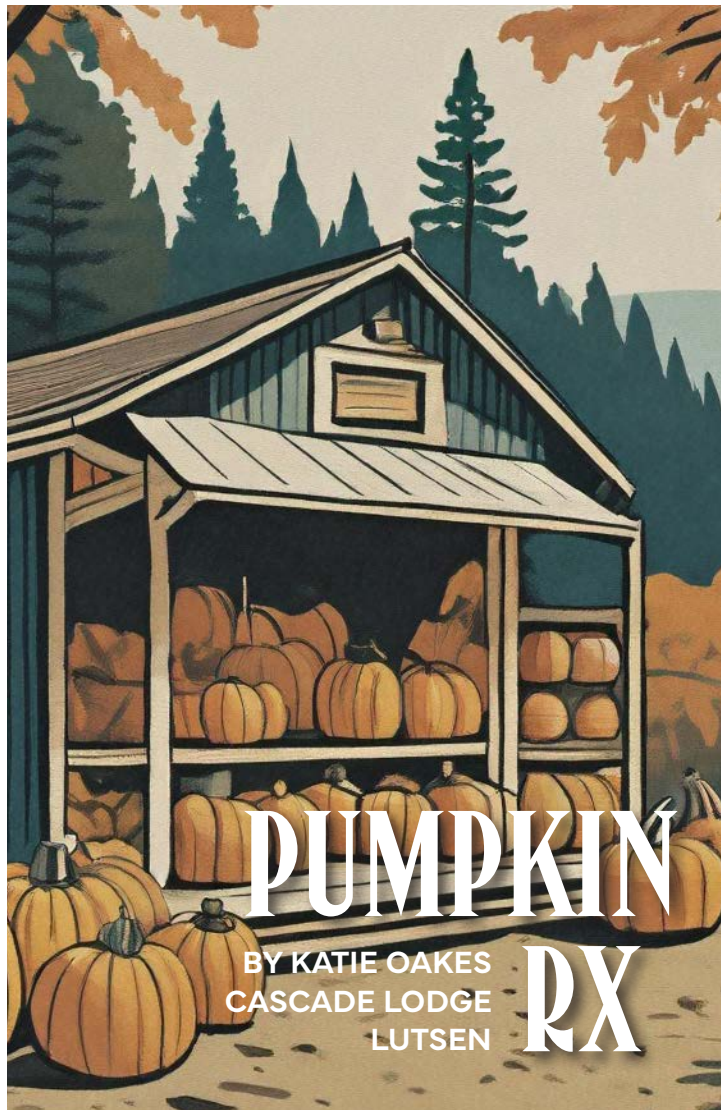

Cedar Gin, Amaro Superiore, sweet vermouth, chai syrup, ancho bitters, Angostura bitters, orange peel

I started with two different ideas – a chai gin sour and a strawberry rhubarb negroni.

Both great. Then inspiration struck: Why not combine the best of each idea? Nuclear fusion!

– Dan

PUMPKIN RX

T • C • S

Spiced Øvrevann Aquavit, sherry, pumpkin spice syrup, coconut milk, gingerbread syrup, lime & orange juices, nutmeg

*As fall began to unfold,
I wanted to lean into the richness of the season with traditional warm flavors, then decided to pull in some lighter
tropical vibes with a tiki base.*

— Katie

TROPICAL SWEATER WEATHER

C • N • T

Pink peppercorn-infused Voyageur Aquavit, spiced Hay & Sunshine Whiskey, pecan falernum, pistachio orgeat, sherry, lime juice, pink peppercorn syrup, Angostura bitters, cayenne salt

I wanted something REALLY out of the box, and I was hooked on the idea of peppercorn syrup. This drink is complex, but the spiced whiskey and Ango make it so approachable.

— Vienna

*PS: My drink won,
"customer favorite"
at our showcase!

Milk-washed Øvrevann Aquavit,
Duluth Vodka, coffee-infused Aperitivo
Classico, miso caramel

We don't have desserts on the menu at our bar. Instead, we make incredible dessert cocktails! The milk-wash process (a bit of magic) makes this drink clear but rich — so unexpected!
— Sarah Kay & Makayla Rae

*Original drink name was Milk Punch 507
