

ARTLOG

FriendsWithYou's Light Cave

By Manish Vora | Sep 9, 2014

Everyone's friends, FriendsWithYou, have brought their LA/Miami playful artist style to the Standard Hotel in NYC's Meatpacking District. They describe their latest installation Light Cave as "a cathedral of the spirit. This interactive experience is manifested with the purpose of joining people together in a metaphysical sense." Simply put, the two artists, Samuel Borkson and Arturo Sandoval III, are on a continual mission to use art to bring joy, force play and flood your instagram. Prepare yourself for four weeks of rainbow glows and incandescent funk.

Photos by Alyssa Ringler

Video Courtesy of FriendsWithYou