

FOUR WALLS

*Out where the bright lights are glowing You're drawn like a moth to a flame
You laugh while the wine's overflowing
While I sit and whisper your name*

*Four walls to hear me
Four walls to see
Four walls too near me
Closing in on me*

*Sometimes I ask why I'm waiting
But my walls have nothing to say
I'm made for love not for hating
So here where you left me I'll stay*

*One night with you is like heaven
And so while I'm walking the floor
I listen for steps in the hallway
And wait for your knock on my door*

*Four walls to hear me
Four walls to see
Four walls too near me
Closing in on me*

Closing in on me

Jim Reeves' 1957 recording of
"Four Walls" was produced by Chet Atkins and is often credited as the first true example of the Nashville Sound.
