ABOUT US

"Grand Station offers a unique and diverse setting for your conference and professional events."

A GRADE II LISTED BUILDING
FORMALLY KNOWN AS
WOLVERHAMPTON LOW LEVEL
STATION, THE GRAND STATION IS A
PROMINENT HISTORICAL LANDMARK
LOCATED CENTRALLY IN THE CITY.

Originally opened in 1854, the buildings were designed by John Fowler, the rack work by Henry Robertson and the roof by Isambard Kingdom Brunel. The station was closed for 30 years but has since been completely transformed into an abundant venue with two opulent suites and four meeting rooms.

With a seated capacity from as little as 1 to 1000, the Grand station's elegant arched windows, beautifully crafted ceiling, and period features are a great setting for any corporate event.
