Safe Labor and Delivery

prayer cards

WELCOME

Hello! As you prepare for the arrival of your little one, I want to offer you something special to support you during labor and delivery. Knowing that this can be an intense and emotional time, I've created a set of safe labor and delivery prayer cards.

These cards are simple yet powerful prayers to help guide you through your birthing experience. They can offer peace of mind and strength when you need it most. Please download them and keep them with you as you welcome your baby into the world. Use them to find comfort and courage, reminding you of your power and the support surrounding you. Remember, you have the strength for this beautiful moment.

How to Use Labor and Delivery Prayer Cards

1. Select a Card: Choose one prayer card that speaks to you in the moment.
2. Read Aloud: Gently read the prayer out loud or silently to yourself, focusing on each word.
3. Reflect: Pause to think about the prayer's meaning and how it relates to your feelings and hopes for labor.
4. Carry with You: Keep the card on you or in a place where you can see it during labor for continuous support and encouragement.
5. Share: After your delivery, share your experiences and the prayers that helped you most with other expecting mothers who might benefit from them.
