

Glycotwinning
Building Networks to Excel in Glycoscience

Workshop on Transferable Skills

10th—11th October '24

Innovation, Technology Transfer and Entrepreneurship.

Challenges in Innovation and Technology Transfer in Biotechnology and Health,
with a focus on Glycosciences.
Workshop co-organised with CIC bioGUNE.

NOVA NOVA SCHOOL OF
SCIENCE & TECHNOLOGY

CIC bioGUNE
MEMBER OF BASQUE RESEARCH
& TECHNOLOGY ALLIANCE

 Funded by the European Union

 UK Research and Innovation

Workshop on Innovation, Technology Transfer and Entrepreneurship

The topics will address current challenges in innovation and technology transfer within Biotechnology and Health, with a special focus on Glycoscience. The event will feature lectures by representatives from the Portuguese innovation and entrepreneurial ecosystem, and investors covering both the principles and practical aspects of the Technology Transfer process, Artificial Intelligence applied to biotech and the building of a business plan.

- Roundtables featuring entrepreneurs and investment managers from the Biotech and Health sectors
- Network with key representatives from the Technology Transfer chain
- Building of a business plan

Time	Thu 10/10 (Library Auditorium, Floor -1)	Fri 11/10 (Executive room)
09:00		2. Technology transfer session From bench to market – The Technology Transfer process - Donatello Castellana
10:00		The importance of Intellectual Property - Pedro Almeida
11:00	Coffee-break
11:30		3. Entrepreneurship session (Executive room) Business, Commercialisation, mapping stakeholders & partners - Belma Rizvanovich
13:00	Lunch *
14:30	Welcome - Professor Eurico Cabrita Vice-Dean for Research and Innovation Emerging I&TT&E in Glycosciences GLYCOTwinning Coordinators	Management of Intellectual Property - Fernanda Llussá
15:00	1. Innovation session AI applied to Biotech - Aneesh Zutshi
15:40
16:10	Innovation ecosystem - Filipa Sacadura P-BIO
16:45	"Real life" Innovations – personal perspectives from an entrepreneur – roundtable with Paula Videira, Ricardo Henriques, Alexandra Fernandes, tbd.	Women in Technology Transfer – roundtable with Paula Videira, Fernanda Llussá, Belma Rizvanović, Patrícia Costa
17:45	Networking moment	Appetizers – drinks

* Group photo in front of the Library building – 14h15.