Chairman's Report: Bob Gomez

- All future meetings this year will be the last Thursday of the month at this facility.
- Looking to do Zoom meetings in the future. Tonight was a test that failed using the WI-FI. Instead, Chairman Gomez used his phone to allow those 8 PCs to be present during the meeting.
- Wants us to spend more time putting down Democrats instead of Republicans.
- All PCs added between now and October 1 will have the opportunity to vote next year in the quadrennial election for the delegates that will represent Arizona in the Republican National Convention.
- New website is up and running. Listed various actions that can be taken on the website. The letter written on behalf of Senator Borelli's position of no machines in the election process is posted on the website.
- Lawsuit: Hearing on Czarny's lawsuit is on July 11. We will continue to do business.
- Communication: Misty has setup Signal channel to allow LD3 to speak openly.
- Board needs help with technology.
- Lisa Young taking on task to setup various committees.
- Catherine Tunget has volunteered to help PCs.
- Anthony Peters is our ambassador as we continue to try to bring our LD together in preparation for success in 2024.
