

Terry Porter Placed On RINO Wall of Shame

Whistleblower Tina Peters is being persecuted by RINO Mesa County District Attorney Dan Rubinstein over her efforts to protect election integrity. The CO GOP this week sent out an email asking Colorado Republicans to keep Peters in their prayers, as Peters' trial was delayed until July.

The simple, compassionate request prompted an unhinged RINO rant from Mesa County GOP Secretary Terry Porter. She sent an email out to the 400 plus members of the CO GOP State Central Committee demanding they oust Chair Dave Williams. Williams politely replied that if she is embarrassed by conservative grassroots principles, she is welcome to join a different political party and resign.

Porter isn't the only RINO all a twitter.

A Who's Who of RINO Has Beens is clutching their Establishment pearls and wailing over the CO GOP leadership's email requesting prayers and support for Peters

The email was attacked by 33 former and current Republican election officials in an email of their own, which was picked up by the usual Establishment and Liberal media. It was signed by Zuckerbuck enthusiast Pam Anderson, former CO Secretary of State RINO Wayne Williams, and Aurora Mayor Mike Coffman to name a few. They parroted the Dem claim that Peters did not uncover any election fraud. But that's fake news. As anyone who has actually followed the facts of the case knows, Peters discovered that election files were erased.

CO GOP Chair Dave Williams says, "Regardless of what one thinks about Tina, all should be able to acknowledge the government is unfairly persecuting her because of their leftist bias. We won't stand for political persecution, and we hope others would feel the same way."

Here is the bizarre Porter email chain. Read it for yourself.

Dave, Hope, and Anna,

I cannot begin to tell you how much I disagree with this!

First, Tina deserves a fair trial and I have only spoken to a few people on this, but no matter how you feel about Dominion tabulators, what she did and how she did it was wrong and illegal! I was working in the election office that election cycle as an election judge in the front office and at times as needed in the back processing area. I saw when she came in to the election division and usually it was to appear for a press conference or as she floated through. I was not a fan before her antics and I totally don't condone any of what she did! It put a big black eye on the Mesa County Elections Department, none of which the all the judges and employees, except for those 3, deserved.

Second, it has caused immense damage to the Republican party in Mesa County, one of the last Republican strongholds in the state. People are turned off and don't want anything to do with the party because they get branded with "crazies" and aren't even voting! This has emboldened the "Restore the Balance" group that paints itself as the moderate, reasonable people in the county, when they are another dark money funded pretenders with about 10% Republican members because it is good for their business. Every time you all do things like supporting Tina or Opt-Out or Endorse Trump or... once again we all get labeled "crazy, extremists" and we lose more Republicans in Mesa County and I believe the rest of the state! You are making our jobs nearly impossible, making us all look bad over and over! Dave, if you want to run on these issues, resign and run. Otherwise, stop over-reaching what the party should be doing - to bring people INTO the party and ELECTING Republicans! Right now you are making too many of us ashamed to be a Republican in Colorado right now! And I have been a Republican for 50 years in Grand Junction!

Stop!
Terry Porter
Mesa County GOP Secretary

CO GOP Chair Dave Williams' response is brilliant and to the point. Here it is.

Terry,
Thank you for sharing your feelings. We simply disagree. If you are embarrassed by conservative grassroots principles you are welcome to join a different political party and resign.
Until then we thank you for your frequent reminder/request of moderation or the watering down of our principles and decline to acquiesce to your request.
Thank you,
Dave

Porter is parroting UniParty talking points without regard for the facts. Facts – the vast majority of Colorado Republicans support Williams and his leadership, they support the opt-out to liberate Republican primaries from Democrat meddling and they support Trump.

RINOs like Porter are the real “crazies.”

But Porter doesn't care about the facts, only about clinging to whatever vestiges of power the Establishment has and selling out to appease liberals. And so, Porter lashed out with this email to the 400-plus members of the CO GOP State Central Committee. A typical UNiParty call for “unity.”

Dear members of the SCC:

Please read the email exchange below.

I am convinced that Dave Williams should no longer be the chairman of the party. We are not his election committee and he needs to choose between running for office or being chairman of the party. He is hurting the party as a whole by his divisive actions. He needs to make a choice or the SCC needs to take action to remove him. There is a conflict of interest and I suggest it is hurting our organization. Clearly, he is more than willing to lose members for his ego.

I'm not asking you to take sides. I am asking you to consider what you think is best for the party and our ability to bring people INTO the party and ELECTING Republicans! Remember we win with 51% of the vote, not 24%.

This is my opinion. I am writing only for myself, not the Mesa County Central Committee, the officers, or anyone else.

Terry Porter

But there is a growing grassroots push in Mesa County and in Colorado to oust RINOs like Porter. As expressed in these responses to Porter's complaints.

Terry Porter,

Frankly I am ashamed & disappointed of you there in Mesa for I'm a 6 term county chairman and the grass roots did run on this platform, and won. The last administration asked for Tina to drop out due to the charges, and this one supports her against the charges. The law-fare going on here is NO DIFFERENT than the law-fare against Trump. Would you of said back in the 1700's, "don't listen to Paul Revere, he doesn't know what he's talking about?"

There is something going on in this country, and frankly it's been going on a long time. In addition to praying for Tina, I'll start praying for all of you over there on the western slope that you may see the light of the absolute corruption going on behind the scenes. It's thicker than you realize and will never be exposed with emails such as yours.

Terry, if I'm being honest, the State would stand behind you, as a Republican, if you faced the same trials that Tina did. I'm not condoning any actions by anyone, I wasn't there, but if faced the persecution of the Biden DOJ & FBI, we would stand with you also. I feel that what you're missing is, there is room for all sides of our Party. No one is picking sides, we're supporting and lifting each other up, not throwing punches. And at this point, it's not a matter of whether or not you like Trump, as this really seems to be the root of your anger. The point is the population of the Republican party has spoken and it's time for Mesa County to get on board. Organizations are successful only if, when a decision is made, and that regardless of your personal feelings, you get on board. There will be times when you get your way, and times when you don't, it's the times when you don't that your actions define YOUR character. The State GOP MEMBERS, not the SCC, took a vote and Trump is our guy.

And to put my money where my mouth is, when we didn't pass the Opt Out, you didn't hear those of us, specifically me, complaining. We accept the will of the people in our Party, and we get on board to the next stop; it's time you think about that for you and those in Mesa County. You didn't get your way on the last vote so make the choice, throw a fit, or find a path forward.

And this response pretty much sums it up.

Dear Terry, if we are making your job nearly impossible to do and making you look bad over and over, then we would all gladly accept YOUR resignation. And change your affiliation while you're at it.
