GAPSA Standing Rules Part 0: General

GAPSA Standing Rule 1

(0) Rules for Standing Rules. This Rule is created on the authority of the GAPSA Constitution, Article XII, section C.

(1) All published rules, guidelines, and regulations of GAPSA whatsoever should be codified in the GAPSA Standing Rules if they are not promulgated by the Constitution or Bylaws. Thus, all Acts of the General Assembly with durable effect and the rules of any Board, Division, Committee, Council, or Officer having delegated authority should be codified as Standing Rules.

(2) Each Standing Rule is annotated with the authority that created it in subdivision (0) thereof, and have the weight of Acts of the same. They may only be amended or rescinded explicitly and only by the creating authority, by the General Assembly, or by such an authority as the rule may provide. An Act of a subsidiary organ creating, amending, or rescinding Standing Rules becomes void if it is not reported to the General Assembly at its next meeting and remains void until so reported.

(3) The individual Rules of the GAPSA Standing Rules shall be numbered uniquely without regard to greater subdivisions that contain them. Subdivisions of each Standing Rule are numbered in accordance with ISO 2145, that is, with Hindu-Arabic numerals delimited by periods, starting from 1 (except header or introductory subdivisions which are explicitly or implicitly zero (0)). A secretarial annotation is inserted in published Standing Rules noting that any gaps in the numbering are reserved for future use.

[GAPSA Standing Rule 1 last amended by GA/44/RES/11 on 2023-02-15]

[Rules 2–9 are reserved for later use]

GAPSA Standing Rule 10: Standardized Symbol System

(0) GAPSA Standardized Symbol System. This Rule is created on the authority of the General Assembly.

(1) The GAPSA Standardized Symbol System (GAPSASSS, pronounced “triple ess”) is a system of unique identifiers, symbols, assigned to every unit/organ, officer, or document of GAPSA. Symbols of the system are separated into components by the oblique stroke (/). In an absolute symbol, the first group of components identifies the unit/organ and/or officers; the second group the current year of GAPSA and the subsequent components identify documents. Not all combinations of all possible values of components listed below are valid.

(2) Quick Reference. This is an abridged version of the system that follows, for quick reference.

(2.1) Unit/Organ Component Group.

- GA/—/ = General Assembly
- EB/—/ = Executive Board
- /C.<id>/—*/ = A standing committee, `<id>` is the acronym.
- /AC.<id>/—*/ = An ad hoc, special, or select committee, `<id>` is the acronym.

(2.2) —/(year)/—/ one (1) is the 1979–1980 academic year.

(2.3) Document Component. `<number>` are assigned sequentially in each academic year for each document class for each unit/organ starting from one (1).

- /RES/<number> = Adopted Resolution or Bill, numbered in order of adoption.
- /MIN/(meeting number) = Latest Approved (Corrected) Minutes
- /AGN/(meeting number) = Agenda or Order of Business

(2.4) Document Suffix Component. `<number>` are assigned sequentially for each symbol they modify and each class of suffix component, starting from one (1).

- /Amend.<number> = Amendment: document containing the amendments.
- /Corr.<number> = Corrigendum/Correction
- /R.<number> = Revision: a revised version, zero (0) is the original issuance (which may be omitted).

(3.15) Personal Component. The officers of a unit/organ. The year and document component groups are omitted to identify the current officers. When used with a document component group, this identifies documents issued in the name of the officer specifically and not of the unit/organ in which they serve.

(3.15.1) —/Ch/— = The Chair
(3.15.2) —/S/— = The Secretary, the officer principally bearing the duties of recording secretary.
GAPSA Standing Rule 10: Standardized Symbol System

(3.15.3) —/T/— = The Treasurer

(3.15.4) —/Pa/— = The Parliamentarian

(3.15.5) —/(id)/— = Other Officer, ⟨id⟩ is the acronym of the full, standard title of the officer constructed by the rules for acronyms below.

(3.15.6) —/pt/— is postpended to the previous for an interim officer or an officer pro tempore.

(4) Year Component Group. Principally, the form identifying only the year is used. If it is appropriate and desired to identify the meeting, the second form may be used, in which case, the ⟨number⟩ component for minutes and agendas (described below) may be omitted. The third form, identifying the academic year, not the year of the General Assembly may be used for units, organs, and partner groups such as the G12+.

(4.1) —⟨year⟩/—  ⟨year⟩ identifies the year of the General Assembly, starting on July 1, where the 1979–1980 academic year was year one (1).

(4.2) —⟨year⟩,⟨meeting⟩/—  ⟨meeting⟩ is assigned sequentially in each academic year for each unit of GAPSA at the call of each meeting thereof, starting from one (1). This may be applied to documents whose ⟨number⟩ was assigned before or at the adjournment of the meeting ⟨meeting⟩ and after the adjournment of the previous meeting.

(4.3) —⟨academic year⟩/—  ⟨academic year⟩ identifies the academic year, starting on July 1, where the 1979–1980 academic year was year 1980.

(5) Document Component Group. Identifies documents that belong to or emerge from the unit/organ in the first component group. Number elements, ⟨number⟩, are assigned Hindu-Arabic numerals sequentially in each academic year for each document class for each unit/organ starting from one (1). Synonymously, a ⟨number⟩ component may be replaced by a date component subgroup, see below. Document symbols intrinsically without a ⟨number⟩ element refer to the latest version of the document adopted by or in the specified year. In this case also, the year component group may be omitted, in which case, the symbol refers to the current version of the document. Alternatively to a ⟨number⟩ element, a date component subgroup may be postpended, identifying the version that was most recently adopted on or as of that date. The canonical symbol of a particular version of a document uses the earliest date that applies to it, that is, the date it was adopted (not necessarily the date it came into force). Document symbols referring to durable documents, that is, the Constitution (Const), Bylaws (BL), Standing Rules (SR), Special Rules of Order (SRO), and the Standardized Symbol System (SSS), have the year component group (if included) listed after the first document component and before any further document components.

(5.1) —/Const = The Constitution (applicable only to the prefix A/—)

(5.2) —/BYL = The Bylaws
(5.3) —/SR = The Standing Rules (applicable only to the prefix A/, which is usually omitted, see below for discussion of relative symbols).

(5.4) —/SRO = The Special Rules of Order

(5.5) —/SSS = The Standardized Symbol System: this set of rules (applicable only to the prefix A/, which is usually omitted, see below for discussion of relative symbols).

(5.6) —/BUDG = The Budget

(5.7) —/PBUDG = Provisional Budget

(5.8) —/ROLL = The Official Membership Roll: list of current members of the unit/organ and the status of each member (e.g., full, non-voting, interim, etc). If the meeting is specified in the year component group, this refers to the document only containing information (roll/attendance/certificates) relevant to that meeting.

(5.8.1) —/CERT is postpended for the extended membership roll containing certificates of election or appointment of each member to the unit/organ and certificates of acceptable proxies of each appointing organization.

(5.8.2) —/ATND is postpended for the extended membership roll containing the full attendance records and proxy appointments (if applicable) of each member.

(5.9) —/BILL/(number) = Bill or Draft Resolution: a proposed resolution or original main motion, (number) assigned upon announcement or introduction to the unit/organ, whichever is earliest. This is essentially a synonym for “—/RES/(RES number)/Pro.(Pro number)” where (RES number) is the subsequent RES-class (number) to be assigned and (Pro number) is the subsequent BILL-class (number) to be assigned less the last BILL-class (number) assigned before the last assignment of a RES-class (number) in the same academic year.

(5.10) —/RES/(number) = Adopted Resolution or Bill: an adopted, original main motion (whether oral or written, whether containing “Resolved,” or not), (number) assigned upon adoption.

(5.11) —/MIN/(number) = Latest Approved (Corrected) Minutes: (number) assigned upon the adjournment of the meeting to which the minutes correspond. Synonymously, if the meeting is specified in the year component group, (number) may be omitted. The unsuffixed symbol refers to the latest corrected version of the minutes of the meeting. See usage notes for symbols of corrections and versions.

(5.12) —/PV/(number) = Procès-verbal: the verbatim recording or transcript of meetings. (number) assigned as for minutes above and may be omitted if the meeting is specified in the year component group. The unsuffixed symbol refers to the latest version of the record, as corrected for historical accuracy.
(5.13) —/AGN/(number) = Agenda or Order of Business: ⟨number⟩ is assigned upon the meeting as for minutes above and may be omitted if the meeting is specified in the year component group. The unsuffixed symbol refers to the first version of the agenda adopted by the General Assembly. Revised or proposed agendas may use the revision suffix component below.

(5.14) —/M/(number) = Memorandum: official report of a unit/organ that is not both required and regular, or an adopted written motion that is not a Bill (e.g., a written incidental main motion that is not a resolution), ⟨number⟩ assigned upon issue.

(5.15) —/RRR/(number) = Required Regular Report of an officer or unit/organ (e.g., sunshine review (EB/F/(year)/RRR/(number)), semi-annual executive board reports (EB/(year)/RRR/(number)), officers’ monthly reports (EB/(id)/(year)/RRR/(number))), ⟨number⟩ assigned for the reporting period (semester, quarter, month, fortnight, or week) for which it is required to be reported. Annual reports identified as memoranda.

(5.16) —/P/(number) = Proposal or Paper: unofficial paper (e.g., proposal for action or evidentiary document) issued by a member of the unit, ⟨number⟩ assigned upon first announcement or introduction to the remaining members of the unit/organ or more broadly.

(5.17) Date Component Subgroup. This can substitute ⟨number⟩ components synonymously. If this is done, the year component group may be omitted.

(5.17.1) —/(YYYY)/(MM)/(DD) This identifies calendar year, month, and day ⟨number⟩ was assigned (padding the month and day with zeros as necessary to make them two digits each)

(5.17.2) —/(YYYY)/(MM)/(DD)/(daily number) If more than one ⟨number⟩ component was assigned on the same day, this form is used to disambiguate, where ⟨daily number⟩ is assigned for the particular day, starting from one (1).

(5.18) Suffix Component. Modified or modifying documents have the following component appended to the end of their symbol. Number elements, ⟨number⟩, are assigned sequentially for each symbol they modify and each class of suffix component, starting from one (1). These suffix components may be sequenced to refer to modifications of modifications.

(5.18.1) —/Amend.(number) = Amendment: a document containing amendments to the main document, with ⟨number⟩ assigned upon adoption by the competent authority. Amendments increment the revision number of the amended main document.

(5.18.2) —/Corr.(number) = Corrigendum: modification of a specific part of a document to correct errors, as approved by a competent authority, ⟨number⟩ assigned upon said approval. Corrigenda need not be issued to correct simple typographical errors. Secretarial corrections to documents (e.g., upon the triggering of auxiliary provisions of the budget) are corrigenda. The symbol refers to both the corrected document, and to the document containing just the corrections (the corrigendum); subdivisions of corrigenda must be identified uniquely among subdivisions of the base document. Corrections do not increment the revision number of the main document.

(5.18.3) —/R.<number> = Revision: a revised version of the whole document issued by the original author. The original, unsuffixed version has revision number zero (0) implicitly, which may be included explicitly for clarity if the document is likely to be amended. This implicit zero does not apply to documents whose symbols refer to the latest revision; revision number zero must be explicitly specified to give the earliest revision extant in that year.

(5.18.4) —/Pro.<number> = Proposal or Response: a modified version of a document not issued by the author of the original document or an original or modified document not issued by a competent authority. This component is postpended to the symbol (including any suffixes) the document would have were it promulgated by the competent authority. <number> assigned upon first announcement to the full membership of the unit. Further amendments to the proposal by the same corresponding author are further suffixed by a revision suffix component, as the corresponding author is the competent authority for the proposal document.

(5.18.5) —/prov = Provisional Symbol: postpended at the very end of symbols containing <number> elements that have not yet been assigned such that the symbol may be preempted by another and break the uniqueness of the reference (i.e., before the announcement that assigns <number> in the “—/BILL/<number>”, “—/P/<number>”, and “—/Pro.<number>” components).
Provisional symbols are not guaranteed to be unique identifiers. Note that a document satisfying the announcement that assigns <number> in the last “—/Pro.<number>” component of its symbol, yet whose symbol contains other <number> elements not yet assigned is not a provisional symbol: it is common knowledge to the members of the unit the next value to assign to <number> elements, so the reference will remain unique.

(6) Symbol Synonyms. A document can have multiple symbols referring to it simultaneously. For example, hypothetically, a third draft resolution of the year 44 in which only one resolution has previously been adopted is announced on October 30, 2022 and introduced in the GA on November 9, 2022 principally as “GA/44/BILL/3” or, synonymously, “GA/BILL/2022/10/30” or “GA/44/RES/2/Pro.1” and is subsequently amended on the floor and adopted. The amended, adopted version is principally referred to as “GA/44/RES/2”, but may also be referred to as “GA/RES/2022/11/9” and also by its symbols immediately before adoption, “GA/44/BILL/3/R.1” and “GA/BILL/2022/10/30/R.1” (the amendment modifying it is “GA/44/BILL/3/Amend.1” etc). If this resolution is an amendment to the Constitution, the second proposed and first adopted of the year, it could also be referred to as “A/Const/44/Amend.1/Pro.2” upon announcement, “A/Const/44/Amend.1/Pro.2/R.1” after amendment on the floor, and “A/Const/44/Amend.1” upon adoption. The version of the Constitution before amendment is “A/Const/44/R.0”; after amendment, “A/Const/44” refers to the latest version of the Constitution adopted in the year, which is more specifically “A/Const/44/R.1”. If this resolution is or contains an amendment to the budget, the first proposed after the adoption of the fourth of the year, it could also be referred to as “GA/44/BUDG/Amend.5/Pro.1” upon announcement, “GA/44/BUDG/Amend.5/Pro.1/R.1” after amendment on the floor, and “GA/44/BUDG/Amend.5” upon adoption. The full budget is “GA/44/BUDG/R.4” before amendment and “GA/44/BUDG/R.5” afterwards. If the resolution was, for example, reported from an ad hoc committee on housing access, and was the fourth version of the only document considered by the committee internally, “GA/44/BILL/3” may also be referred to as “GA/AC.HA/44/P/1/R.3”. Officers may also have synonymous symbols. The Vice President for Finance may be referred to as “GA/C.F/Ch” and synonymously “EB/VPF”. If the Executive Vice President is designated to serve as chair of Executive Board meetings, then “EB/Ch” refers to “EB/EVP”.

(7) Usage Notes. A regular required report from the Finance Division leadership for the fifth reporting period of the year is “EB/F/44/RRR/5”. If it was approved by the Finance Division and not merely the Finance Division leadership, then “GA/C.F/44/RRR/5”. A third report from the Finance Division that is not both required and regular is a memorandum, so would be “GA/C.F/44/M/3”; if it is issued solely on the authority of the chair and is the second such report, then “GA/C.F/Ch/44/M/2” or, synonymously, “EB/F/Ch/44/M/2” or “EB/VPF/44/M/2”. Before this report is published by the committee (whether as a memorandum or required regular report), if it was the sixth draft report considered of the year, the first version of it is “GA/C.F/44/P/6” (Also “GA/C.F/44/M/3/Pro.1” if it is the aforementioned memorandum draft or “GA/C.F/44/RRR/5/Pro.1” if it is the aforementioned regular required report draft). A member other than the proposer responds with a revised version, this is “GA/C.F/44/P/6/R.1/Pro.1”. If a third member responds to this response with a correction which the second proposer accepts, that is “GA/C.F/44/P/6/R.1/Pro.1/Corr.1” and “GA/C.F/44/P/6/R.1/Pro.1/Corr.1/Pro.1” before it is accepted. If a fourth member responds with another, different proposal that is a response to the original, this is “GA/C.F/44/P/6/R.1/Pro.2”, but if it is a response to the second proposer, this is “GA/C.F/44/P/6/R.1/Pro.1/R.1/Pro.1”. If the original proposer responds to all of this with a second version of the original (whether new or a copy of one of the previous proposals), this is “GA/C.F/44/P/6/R.1”. If the second proposer responds again to this proposal, this is “GA/C.F/44/P/6/R.2/Pro.1”, but if they respond by updating their (corrected) proposal “GA/C.F/44/P/6/R.1/Pro.1/Corr.1”, this is “GA/C.F/44/P/6/R.1/Pro.1/R.1/Corr.1”.

The final budget proposed by the Vice President for Finance is “GA/44/BUDG/Pro.1” (synonymously, “GA/44/BUDG/R.0/Pro.1”) and becomes “GA/44/BUDG/R.0” when adopted. If it is amended before it is introduced, the first amended version is “GA/44/BUDG/Pro.1/R.1”. The symbol “GA/44/BUDG” also refers to this version until the budget is amended (at which point “GA/44/BUDG” refers to the current version). Symbols for the provisional budget are the same with “PBUDG” instead of “BUDG”. If an auxiliary provision of the (amended) budget “GA/44/BUDG/R.1” is satisfied and line items are automatically reallocated as a secretarial correction, this reallocated budget is “GA/44/BUDG/R.1/Corr.1”. If this budget is later amended explicitly by the General Assembly, it becomes “GA/44/BUDG/R.2”.

The proposed agenda sent in the call of the fifth meeting of the year 44 is “GA/44/AGN/5/Pro.1” and could be contained in a file named ga44agn5pro1.pdf. If it is amended (by “GA/44/AGN/5/Pro.1/Amend.1”) by the General Assembly after the question on its adoption is stated and “GA/44/AGN/5/Pro.1” becomes the property of the General Assembly, the amended version is “GA/44/AGN/5/Pro.1/R.1”. When it is adopted as at the start of the meeting, the adopted version becomes “GA/44/AGN/5”. A further adopted amendment to the agenda after its initial adoption would make it “GA/44/AGN/5/R.1”.

The proposed minutes assembled by the recording secretary for the second meeting of the year 44 and sent to the body for review are “GA/44/MIN/2/Pro.1”. If two members send out two separate suggested corrections, these are “GA/44/MIN/2/Corr.1/Pro.1” and “GA/44/MIN/2/Corr.1/Pro.2”, respectively, upon announcement and “GA/44/MIN/2/Corr.1” and “GA/44/MIN/2/Corr.2” upon adoption by the General Assembly. If these are the latest corrections adopted, then “GA/44/MIN/2” (or equivalently “GA/44.2/MIN”) refers to “GA/44/MIN/2/Corr.2”.

If a Bill that is announced to the General Assembly as “GA/44/BILL/4” is amended by its author before it is introduced, the amended version is “GA/44/BILL/4/R.1”, not “GA/44/BILL/4/R.1/Pro.1” because the author is still the owner of the document and thus the competent authority for modifications. After it is introduced to the General Assembly (when the chair states the question on its adoption), the assembly becomes the owner, and a further revision by the author would be “GA/44/BILL/4/R.2/Pro.1” and only “GA/44/BILL/4/R.2” if the General Assembly adopted the amendment (which would be “GA/44/BILL/4/R.1/Amend.1” or equivalently “GA/44/BILL/4/Amend.2”).

(8) Document Subdivisions. Subdivisions of a document may be identified by placing them after the document’s symbol, delimited by a colon (:), or, alternatively, by a double oblique stroke (///). The document may specify the standard, and, if it does not introduce an ambiguity, a further alternative delimiter. For example, Article 10.3.3 of the Finance Bylaws is identified as “GA/C.F/BYL:10.3.3” or “GA/C.F/BYL//10.3.3”, Article III(A)(1) of the Constitution may be identified as “A/Const:III(A)(1)” or “A/Const//III(A)(1)”. Each document may define standards for identifying its various subdivisions. A range of consecutive subdivisions can be collectively identified by identifying the first and last subdivisions included in the range, separated by an en dash (–).
(9) Acronym Rules. Items that already have an acronym in standard use or which are described above are identified by the same. Acronyms for other items are constructed from the undelimited string of capitalized initial letters of the full, standard, ordered name of the item, omitting conjunctions, articles, and prepositions. If these initialisms collide, that is, if they are not unique within their context of applicability, the second and, if necessary, further letters of the final word giving initials that is distinct in the names of the items with colliding initialisms are inserted in lower case after their corresponding initial. If all of the words giving initials are the same for colliding initialisms, the first, and if necessary, further letters of the final conjunction, article, or preposition that is distinct in the names of the items with colliding initialisms are inserted in lower case at their corresponding position. Items with one letter initialisms may append as many further letters in lower case as are needed to uniquely and clearly identify the item and should ordinarily include approximately the first syllable of the name.

(10) Relative, Absolute, and Fully-Qualified Symbols. In the context of a particular unit/organ or when it is otherwise unambiguous, leading components of the absolute symbol can be dropped, thereby giving a relative symbol. For example, this rule can be identified by SSS:10 (which is in turn a synonym for SR:10.10). All of the absolute symbols described above are implicitly further prefixed by the components “EDU/UPENN/GAPSA/” which, when included explicitly, form the fully-qualified symbol, a universally unique identifier.

(11) Alternative Formats

(11.1) Abbreviated Form. Constructed as follows: oblique strokes (/) that separate two letters are replaced by hyphens (-); all other oblique strokes (/) and periods (.) are omitted; any ⟨meeting⟩ elements are padded on the left with zeros to three digits total; and any corrigendum components may be rendered with the abbreviated “C” instead of “Corr”. Document subdivisions are attached in the usual way. Usually used with relative symbols.

(11.2) File Name Form. Constructed from a symbol in abbreviated form as follows: hyphens (-) are replaced by underscores (_) and all letters are rendered in lower case. Hyphens, spaces, or periods should be used to delimit the symbol from other parts of the file name, if there are any.

(11.3) LDH Rule Compliant Form. Constructed as follows: periods (.) are replaced by hyphens (-); oblique strokes (/) are replaced by periods (); and all letters are rendered in lower case.

(11.4) Reverse Domain Name Notation Form. Synonymously either (1) the fully-qualified symbol in LDH rule compliant form or (2) the absolute symbol in file name form with underscores (_) replaced by hyphens (-) and prefixed by “edu.upenn.gapsa.”.
(12) Extensibility. In the future, the system may be extended to include special numbers for certain document classes by reserving (number) elements by starting the count at a number higher than one (1) (e.g., 100 or 1000).

(13) Conforming amendments to this Standardized Symbol System may be made as secretarial corrections without explicit intervention of the General Assembly when constitutional amendments restructure or rename the units/organs of GAPSA, and take effect upon notification of the General Assembly of the change.
