Here's the New Trad Class of '24.

Betsy Berry

Based in Charleston, South Carolina, Betsy Berry cozies up to color. Following fashion studies in Florence, the designer trained with New York luminary David Easton and at Sills Huniford before opening B. Berry Interiors. Her ability to curate spaces with pieces rich in historical charm is poetry in motion. bberryinteriors.com

Jackson Warren

Packing a punch (or two) has been Kiley Jackson and Aileen Warren's speciality since 2017. The pair's fresh take on scale appears in their dynamic blends of unexpected colors. Each space is a unique merriment of antiques, scale, and striking aesthetics. jacksonwarreninteriors.com
