HELLO FROM THE FLATMATES

We are an award-winning bar and restaurant group that creates beautiful venues to make you feel like you're walking into someone's home, styling it on a fictional flatshare. We're best known for throwing weekly house parties, dinner parties and private events.

Our story started eight years ago when we began as a pop-up in Notting Hill. Since then, we've opened five amazing, permanent venues across London and won multiple awards, including Best Bar in London by Tatler Magazine, Best Bottomless Brunch by the Evening Standard. We're incredibly proud of what we have created and would love to show you around!

Having thrown countless house parties and dinner parties over the years, we've brought our second site to Soho to create an authentic, homely, and unpretentious environment for guests to eat, drink and dance in the setting of an epic house party.

OUR HOUSE, YOUR PARTY!

" With top notch food, killer cocktails, silly games and free roam of their flat, this is the ultimate house party, and everyone's invited! "

- The Evening Standard
