NEBOSH HSE Introduction to Incident Investigation Explained:

Discover the NEBOSH HSE Introduction to Incident Investigation course, a collaborative effort by NEBOSH and the HSE. Learn how to investigate non-complex incidents effectively and master proven incident investigation techniques.

Join our one-day, 8-hour introductory course, designed for anyone aiming to conduct incident investigations with confidence and skill.

Benefits for Learners :

- Independently investigate simple incidents
- Gather evidence including conducting witness interviews
- Produce an action plan to prevent a recurrence of an incident
- Contribute to team investigations for large scale incidents
- Positively impact the safety culture in your organisation

Benefits for Employers :

- Drives down repeat incidents – learn lessons so it doesn't happen again
- Confidence that your organisation's approach to investigations is robust
- Improved safety culture by encouraging a proactive approach to incident investigation
- Build in-company expertise
- An approach to incident investigations that reflect best practice

Course Programme

The one day NEBOSH HSE Introduction to Incident Investigation covers the following topics:

- Moral, legal and financial arguments for investigations
- Human and organisational factors that can contribute to an incident

- The process for investigating incidents
- Positive interview strategies and the barriers to successful interviews
- Advanced incident investigation technique

Assessment

The NEBOSH HSE Incident Investigation course is completed with a 60-minute practical assessment, based on a hypothetical accident scenario. Candidates are provided with a pack of evidence and shown a video of three witness interviews. They are assessed on their ability to review the evidence, evaluate each interview and produce an action plan to prevent recurrence of the incident described.

You will receive your results within 24 working days of sitting the assessments. Once you have achieved a pass a qualification parchment will be issued. This is normally within 40 working days of the confirmation of the successful unit.
