MEET NATASSJA

Meet Natassja Jordan, the dynamic and influential Ms. Black International Ambassador 2023, crowned in the vibrant city of Atlanta, Georgia, on October 14, 2023. Originally hailing from California, Natassja is not just a beauty queen; she is a passionate advocate and social activist dedicated to bridging the gap between politics and transparency. Natassja is a proud alumna of UC Berkeley, where she earned her bachelor's degree in African American studies with an emphasis on Black Female Political Identity. Her academic journey has laid the foundation for her commitment to making a meaningful impact in the realm of politics. Under her compelling platform, "Citizen in Name, But Not in Practice," Natassja is on a mission to empower her community with knowledge about public policy and justice. Through educational tools, volunteering efforts, and grassroots campaigns, she actively works to bridge the gap between citizens and their engagement with political decisions. Natassja's commitment extends beyond words; she is a leading voice for young women of color in politics. Through workshops, volunteering initiatives, and active participation in grassroots campaigns, she is reshaping the narrative and creating spaces for underrepresented voices. As a beacon of motivation, Natassja aspires to inspire women of color in politics. Her multi-faceted, change-maker persona positions her as a role model for those who dare to make a difference. Natassja Jordan is not just the face of positive change; she is the driving force behind it.

Described as multi-faceted, a change-maker, and an advocate, Natassja Jordan yearns to make a lasting impact on the legal system and beyond. With her title as Ms. Black International Ambassador 2023, she is set to leave an indelible mark on the world, championing transparency, justice, and active citizenship.
