Pinnacle Presbyterian Church

Welcome to Easter at Pinnacle

Christ is risen! (Christ is risen, indeed!) This simple and ancient Easter call and response is a beloved part of our Christian tradition. You'll hear it a lot this morning, and hopefully you'll join in. Throughout our worship you'll have the opportunity to participate and you are welcome to do so as you are comfortable. The words to the hymns are printed in this bulletin, but you can also use the red hymnals in the rack in front of you.

Hopefully you have already been greeted and you're starting to feel welcomed. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to ask one of our ushers or anyone wearing a yellow "Ask Me" ribbon on their nametag. You are, indeed, welcome here, and it is our prayer that this time of worship will be meaningful for you. Thank you for being a part of our Easter worship service today!

CALL TO CONFESSION

Rev. Leah Quarles

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Almighty God,
in raising Jesus from the tomb
you have given us the sure sign of your power to deliver us from sin and death
and to renew our whole creation.
We confess that we still fall into doubt and fear.
We continue to cling to selfish ways
and doubt your power to make all things new.
Forgive our lack of faith.
Have mercy on our weakness.
Raise us from the death of sin
that we may live with Christ in the joy of his resurrection, now and forever.

Silence for personal confession.

OFFERTORY ANTHEM

He Is Risen

by Philip W. J. Stopford

Chancel Choir, Dr. Ilona Kubiacyk-Adler, director

Phoenix Brass Collective; Neil Hathaway, timpani

Jacob Adler, organ; Jonathan Lang, piano

He is risen, he is risen, he is risen!

Tell it with a joyful voice;

He has burst his three days' prison,

Let the whole wide earth rejoice.

Death is conquered, we are free,

Christ has won the victory.

Come, ye sad and fearful hearted,

With glad smile and radiant brow;

Lent's long shadows have departed,

All his woes are over now,

And the passion that he bore:

Sin and pain can vex no more.

Come, with high and holy hymning,

Chant our Lord's triumphant day,

Not one darksome cloud is dimming

Yonder glorious morning ray,

Breaking o'er the purple East,

Brighter far our Easter feast.

No. 238 | Thine is the Glory
arr. Lloyd Larson

JUDAS MACCABEUS

1. Thine is the glory, risen, conquering Son;
endless is the victory thou o'er death hast won.
Angels in bright raiment rolled the stone away,
kept the folded grave-clothes where thy body lay.

Refrain:

Thine is the glory, risen, conquering Son;
endless is the victory thou o'er death hast won.

2. Lo! Jesus meets us, risen from the tomb;
lovingly he greets us, scatters fear and gloom.
Let the church with gladness hymns of triumph sing,
for the Lord now liveth; death hath lost its sting. (Refrain)

3. No more we doubt thee, glorious Prince of life!
Life is naught without thee; aid us in our strife.
Make us more than conquerors through thy deathless love;
bring us safe through Jordan to thy home above. (Refrain)

The Authority of Jesus Questioned

20 One day as he was teaching the people in the temple and proclaiming the good news, the chief priests and the scribes came with the elders 2 and said to him, “Tell us, by what authority are you doing these things? Who is it who gave you this authority?” 3 He answered them, “I will also ask you a question, and you tell me: 4 Did the baptism of John come from heaven, or was it of human origin?” 5 They discussed it with one another, saying, “If we say, ‘From heaven,’ he will say, ‘Why did you not believe him?’ 6 But if we say, ‘Of human origin,’ all the people will stone us, for they are convinced that John was a prophet.” 7 So they answered that they did not know where it came from. 8 Then Jesus said to them, “Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.”

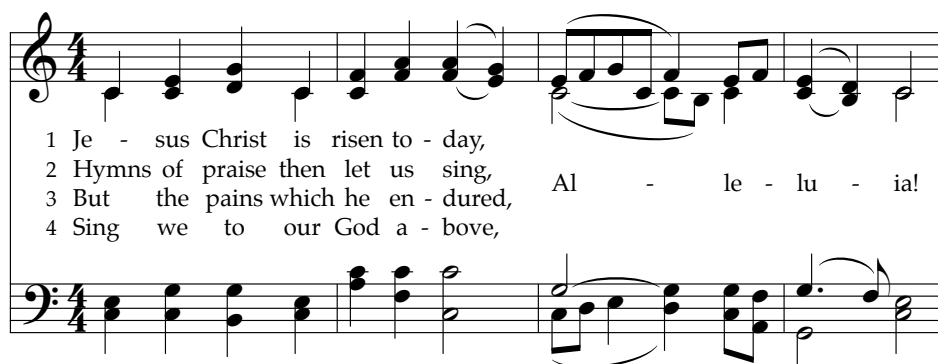

The Parable of the Wicked Tenants

9 He began to tell the people this parable: “A man planted a vineyard and leased it to tenants and went away for a long time. 10 When the season came, he sent a slave to the tenants in order that they might give him his share of the produce of the vineyard, but the tenants beat him and sent him away empty-handed. 11 Next he sent another slave; that one also they beat and insulted and sent away empty-handed. 12 And he sent still a third; this one also they wounded and threw out. 13 Then the owner of the vineyard said, ‘What shall I do? I will send my beloved son; perhaps they will respect him.’ 14 But when the tenants saw him, they discussed it among themselves and said, ‘This is the heir; let us kill him so that the inheritance may be ours.’ 15 So they threw him out of the vineyard and killed him. What then will the owner of the vineyard do to them? 16 He will come and destroy those tenants and give the vineyard to others.” When they heard this, they said, “Heaven forbid!” 17 But he looked at them and said, “What then does this text mean:

‘The stone that the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone’?

18 “Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces, and it will crush anyone on whom it falls.”

The image shows a musical score for a hymn. It consists of two staves, a treble staff on top and a bass staff on the bottom. The treble staff has a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The bass staff has a bass clef and the same key signature. The music is written in a style typical of 19th-century hymnals, with many beamed eighth and sixteenth notes. There are several measures of music, with some measures containing multiple notes beamed together. The lyrics are written below the treble staff, aligned with the notes. The lyrics are: "suf - fer to re - deem our loss. sin - ners to re - deem and save. Al - le - lu - ia! where the an - gels ev - er sing. Fa - ther, Son, and Ho - ly Ghost." The lyrics are written in a simple, sans-serif font. The overall layout is clean and professional.
