AUT Events – Privacy Protocol

This Privacy Protocol document outlines how AUT Events (“we”, “us” and “our”) deals with your personal information, and how we protect your privacy.

We deal with your personal information in accordance with the New Zealand Privacy Act 2020 and the Auckland University of Technology \(AUT\) Privacy Policy. Both govern our collection, use and disclosure of your personal information. The AUT Events’ Privacy Protocol (this document) supports and follows both above, while also applying to any specific work undertaken by AUT Events.

Your privacy is important to us, and we are committed to protecting your privacy when you visit our website or contact or engage with us in any way.

Your Personal Information

We collect information about you and your interactions with us. If you access our services, complete an enquiry form, register for conferences and/or events we manage or visit our website, we will collect and store personal information from you. If you are providing information that is not your own (i.e. registering on behalf of someone), we assume you have that person’s permission to do so. We will use this information in one or more of the following ways:

- To build an account profile in our event management software
- To best reply to your event, conference, catering, website, registration, or abstract enquiry
- To ensure we have accurate information about you if attending an event or conference we are managing to fulfil our event/conference management obligations
- To promote our services

The information we collect includes but is not limited to:

- Your name, address, phone number, email address, billing information
- Information you provide us in the registration process including emergency contacts
- Communication preferences and interactions with us
- Any correspondence with AUT Events
- Website activity
- Your still or moving image
- Any other information you choose to provide to us

If you connect to an AUT provided WiFi or hard-wired internet connection, AUT’s general privacy policy applies. This can be found here – <https://www.aut.ac.nz/privacy>.

In some cases, if the personal information we request is not provided, it might adversely impact our ability to supply the relevant service or fulfil our event/conference management obligations to you.

In instances where a photographer/videographer is present, or we are running a live streamed event, we will have signage informing you of this and announce at the commencement of the event. We will also inform you of the purpose behind the collection/distribution of these images/footage.

Disclosing your personal information

AUT Events

We may disclose your personal information within the AUT Events team or to third parties within New Zealand that we engage with to assist in delivering our services to you. Such information is shared for the purpose of that activity only under strict confidentiality rules. Information may also be shared with other entities in the AUT network, the business and/or events sector in New Zealand or relevant international bodies. Where information is shared outside of New Zealand, recipients of that information will first have to agree to and complete the below model contract clause.

Storage of your personal information

Where needed, we use third-party event planning software to fulfil our event/conference management obligations to you, which store and/or process your data. Those individual software privacy statements can be found below. If we collect handwritten information from you, that will be kept in a locked storage facility/storage device, accessible to only those who have a legitimate need to it.

Where needed, we also store your data on our local drives. Access to data on these drives are restricted to the AUT Events team and cannot be accessed outside of that.

To determine the appropriate retention period of your information, we consider the nature, sensitivity, appropriate legal obligations, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised disclosure, the purposes for which we process your information and whether these purposes can be achieved through alternative means.

The Public Records Act 2005 requires us to retain “protected records” indefinitely. In some circumstances, your personal information may be included within a protected record.

Your information can be deleted earlier on your request by contacting us via either events@aut.ac.nz or +64 9 921 9676, however in some cases, this might adversely impact our ability to supply the relevant service to you. Alternatively, you can opt out by using the function in any electronic marketing communication or survey material sent from us.
