TIFFIN EXPRESS LUNCH MENU

From the colonial kitchens to the flavors of today

£ 21 PER TIFFIN

The Origins of TIFFIN

Tiffin – a word that carries the aroma of nostalgia, the comfort of home-packed meals and a tradition born in colonial India. The term is believed to have stemmed from the British slang "tiffing", meaning to take a sip. But in the bylanes of India, it evolved into something more – a midday ritual, a box filled with warmth and flavors that bridged cultures. From bustling railway platforms to office desks and leisurely afternoons, tiffin has journeyed through time, carrying the essence of simple joys inside.
