

WINE LIST

All wines you see listed here are natural wines- they are farmed at minimum, organically but many of them biodynamically. All have no additions other than tiny amounts of sulphur and each producer on our list carries an ethos of great farming, sustainable practices and desire to keep the soils they work in as healthy as possible. These wines all have a story, the people behind them, the land they come from and the joy created by the bottles enjoyed amongst friends. Please enjoy these wines! They have all been carefully selected for THEECA, and we truly believe there is something for everyone here!
